IN RE: TRIBUNE COMPANY FRAUDULENT
CONVEYANCE LITIGATION

MARC S. KIRSCHNER, as Litigation Trustee for the TRIBUNE LITIGATION TRUST,

Plaintiff,

-v-

DENNIS J. FITZSIMONS, et al.,

Defendants.

Consolidated Multidistrict Litigation

No. 11-md-2296 (RJS)

No. 12-mc-2296 (RJS)

No. 12-cv-2652 (RJS)

ORDER

RICHARD J. SULLIVAN, District Judge:

The Court is in receipt of the attached letter from the “Catholic Sisters who form Ancilla Systems Incorporated” expressing their “sadness” that the payments required by the settlement agreement between the Trustee and Ancilla “limit[] [their] ability to assist the needy. . . .” The Court does not review settlement agreements for fairness, and is in fact unaware of the terms of any of the settlement agreements reached by parties to this case. Nevertheless, the Court shares the Catholic Sisters’ “hope that the money that was returned is used in [a] needful and honorable way. . . .”

SO ORDERED.

RICHARD J. SULLIVAN
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

The Honorable Richard J. Sullivan
Judge of the United States District Court
For the Southern District of New York

RE: Tribune LBO Settlement

Dear Judge Sullivan:

We Catholic Sisters who form Ancilla Systems Incorporated have complied with the determination in the above referenced action and have returned monies from the Tribune LBO Settlement Agreement litigation with the Tribune Company. We agreed to return these funds, but want to express our sadness that this limits our ability to assist the needy we work with. Had we kept these monies, they would have assisted our ministry with newborn medically compromised children, with women who are homeless, with first-generation college students, with moms and young children in need.

We can only hope that the money that was returned is used in as needful and honorable way as we would have.

Sincerely,
